Message from Inspector Symonds

During the Summer months we can notice an increase in youth anti-social behaviour when young people have more time on their hands. This year, we have done a lot of work with the local high schools to engage youths early and educate them on various issues. We work hard with a number of different agencies to implement youth diversion schemes, so the youths are engaged in other ways with the aim that they do not follow the path of crime. We have also visited a number of parents locally to brief them.

Although lots of preventative work has been completed, we take anti-social behaviour seriously as it can impact on your quality of living in a generally nice, low crime area. Therefore if you do get any issues please call 101 or report it via norfolk.police.uk; or dial 999 in an emergency.

Our Summer Beat Manager Tour starts on 8th August for a month – where our team will be visiting your local borough. Further details on dates and times can be found via our Twitter / Facebook pages. We would like to engage with as many people as possible to know what you perceive the issues to be in your area. Thanks.

Message from your Engagement Officer

August is a very busy month for South Norfolk with the summer festivities in full swing, with events for both Wymondham and Diss sides of the district. The beat teams have seen some great results around neighbourhood priorities and the work around these will continue with assistance from the Special Constabulary.

Both beat teams will be out and about at a number of different events being held all over South Norfolk over the coming month along with the start of the Beat Manager Summer Tour (see Facebook for more details) it promise to be a busy month, also if you see the officers out and about don't forget to say hi!

Thanks
